International Students

Academies Australasia Hair and Beauty (AAHB)

Important Information

We hope you find the following points helpful in making your decision to study at Brisbane College of Beauty (BSB), Brisbane College of Hairdressing (BSH), Brisbane College of Barbering and Gold Coast College of Hairdressing.

CAMPUS LOCATION

- The Brisbane campus is conveniently located on Queen Street Mall in the heart of Brisbane City in the Queen Adelaide Building, Upper Ground Floor (UG), Ground Floor (G) and Level 3.
- The Gold Coast is located in Pivotal Point Towers, 2 Nerang Street, Southport. Buses and trains from various locations of the city are a few minutes' walk to the campus.

Our facilities are clean, bright and modern and utilise the latest equipment and resources.

ACCOMMODATION

There are many useful websites providing information about share house, home-stay, rental housing / units and houses for purchase on the internet. Share accommodation starts from around $110 per week, inner city apartments rent from around $250 per week, and home-stay costs around $180 - $250 per week.

LITERACY AND NUMERACY TEST

All students will be required to complete a Pre-Commencement Literacy and Numeracy test. This test may be completed at time of interview/tour or on day of commencement.

RECRUITING STUDENTS

- We will only accept you as a student if we believe you have the ability to complete the course you choose. This means you might have to prove your English language skills, your education level, or previous training to us.
- If you need to study more English before you can progress with us, we can help you to arrange a suitable course.
- We support the "Equal Opportunity" philosophy for our students and our educational and management team.

EXTRA CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES RELATING TO HAIRDRESSING or BEAUTY

We encourage and help our students to get involved in activities relating to the hair and beauty industry, such as shows, photography shoots and competitions. Details will be provided by your educator during your course.

DEFERRALS OR SUSPENSION OF STUDIES

The College may defer or suspend your enrolment in the case of illness where a medical certificate is issued by a registered medical practitioner that states that you are unable to attend classes as a result of illness. The college may also defer or suspend your enrolment in the case of misbehaviour. The maximum deferment or suspension is 3 months.

ASSESSMENTS

For successful completion of all Units of Competency, students will undertake written and practical assessments. Written Assessments will be in an in-class environment under supervision. Practical assessments will be in class and on the clinic floor. Students are given the opportunity of further training and reassessment should they not meet the assessment criteria.

SUBMISSION OF ASSESSMENTS

Students are expected to do their own work at all times. Cheating in exams, plagiarism, copying from other students or submitting other students' work as your own is unacceptable and may lead to suspension or cancellation of your enrolment. The objective of your course is for you to become competent in all the units of competency in the course therefore you must do your own course work.

ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE

Unsatisfactory academic performance is defined by the College in accordance with Australian Government standards. Your academic progress will be recorded on a regular basis and should your progress become a matter of concern to the College, you will be required to attend a mediation session and take steps to rectify the situation or to undertake other commitments required by the College. Should you not make academic progress after this rectification process your enrolment may be cancelled.

COMPLETING YOUR COURSE

We will provide you with assistance where possible to successfully complete your training program within the specified times. We also provide you with extensive resources, excellent instruction, plenty of practise on our regular and new clients. To graduate you need to:

- Successfully complete all units of competency.
- Complete at least the minimum number of hours in the course.
- Complete the productivity targets (numbers of each type of service).
- Maintain a high level of attendance (above 90%).
- Pay all fees on time.

NOTIFICATION OF ADDRESS / CONTACT DETAILS

You must advise us of your residential address and other contact details (eg. phone & email) from the date of applying for enrolment until you have finished your course and received your certificates. You must notify the College of any changes within seven (7) days of changing address.

CAREER OPTIONS

A demand for quality beauty and hair industry specialists currently exists within Australia. You may utilise Brisbane College of Beauty and Brisbane College of Hairdressing's free job placement service that is available to our students. To find out about positions currently available in the beauty and hair industries visit - www.seek.com.au or www.careerone.com.au.

STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICE

AAHB has support services and systems to help both our Local and International students. These services include but are not limited to, counselling, grievance handling and dispute resolution. Information is also provided regarding Orientation and Academic Progress.

- We are sensitive to cross cultural issues.
- We will try to meet any reasonable special needs you may have.
- We have a fair process for handling any complaints.
- We will take reasonable steps to help you overcome any college-related problem you may have.

STUDENT VISAS

Detailed information on visas and how to apply can be obtained from the Department of Home Affairs (DHA) website: www.homeaffairs.gov.au

- You cannot be enrolled in a course longer than 14 weeks unless you are on a Student Visa, a Bridging Visa, or a Temporary Resident Visa or some other type of Visa approved for study the Department of Home Affairs.

EXTENDING YOUR STAY

If you wish to extend your stay to undertake full time study, it will be necessary to apply for a new student visa. If you are in Australia on another temporary visa, you may be eligible to apply for another visa to extend your stay or to migrate here permanently. To determine if you are eligible for another visa, visit the Department of Home Affairs website (www.homeaffairs.gov.au) or a registered Migration Agent.

STUDENTS HOLDING A TEMPORARY OR BRIDGING VISA IN AUSTRALIA

AAHB entry requirements and refund policy also apply to students who hold temporary or bridging visas in Australia. If you hold a temporary or bridging visa, you will be required to pay full international student fees and study on a full time basis.

CHANGE OF VISA STATUS

Should you be granted a bridging visa or temporary visa pending determination of permanent residency after the commencement of your course or after you have paid your tuition fees, you must continue to complete the current course on a full-time basis. There are no refunds. Following your initial student visa, you may wish to extend your stay in Australia for further study or a holiday.

CHANGING YOUR COURSE AFTER COMMENCEMENT

You may not change your course after commencement unless the changes comply with the Department of Home Affairs regulations. No refunds are granted after course commencement, and if you have chosen a payment plan you must complete your financial obligations for the course/courses in which you were enrolled in at the time of commencement. You may make written application outlining extenuating circumstances that will be considered by our General Manager.

ESOS FRAMEWORK

We are required to provide you with this link that describes the ESOS framework.

<https://internationaleducation.gov.au/regulatory-information/pages/regulatoryinformation.aspx>

MIGRATION ADVICE

The Management and Staff of AAHB are not Registered Migration Advisors and therefore cannot give migration advice. For migration advice we suggest you contact either

Department of Home Affairs Visit www.homeaffairs.gov.au/ or A Registered Migration Agent. Visit www.mara.gov.au

Before you ask for migration advice in Australia you should ask to see the advisor's MARN (Migration Agent Registration Number).

TRANSFERRING FROM ANOTHER COLLEGE

If you have been studying at another college for more than six (6) months in your principal course you may change colleges without a letter of release from your current Education Provider. Simply provide the required enrolment documents, successfully complete our Literacy and Numeracy Test, pay your fees and we will issue an e-CoE.

If you have been studying at another college for less than six (6) months and you want to change to AAHB, restrictions do apply. We will consider your case and may issue a Letter of Offer of Place that you must take to your current Education Provider and ask for a Letter of Release. If your college releases you, you pay the agreed fee to us and we will issue an Electronic Confirmation of Enrolment (eCoE) which you should take to Department of Home Affairs to confirm that your visa will be valid and to make any changes to your visa that may become necessary as a result of the change.

ASSESSING A TRANSFER APPLICATION

All documents on our enrolment checklist are required, a list of all your tools, equipment, text books, hair-goods that you own plus details of your current enrolment. This should include where and when you started, how much you have paid to date and a Statement of Attainment or academic transcript listing all the Units of Competency you have completed. It will be necessary to attend a personal interview at our Brisbane Campus where we will assess and prepare a quote for you to complete your studies with BSB or BSH.

BREACH OF VISA CONDITIONS

If it becomes necessary to report you to the Department of Home Affairs for a breach of a visa condition, you will be excluded from the course. If you are excluded and you feel exceptional circumstances apply in your case, you may appeal in writing to the college's General Manager to consider your case. If your attendance is below 80% no course extension is possible. You will be reported to Department of Home Affairs for breaching your student visa attendance condition.

WORKING WHILST STUDYING

Students can work limited part time hours before their allowances are affected, and many work in salons on the weekend or some late nights. Please keep in mind that work restrictions do apply to international students on a student visa (maximum 40 hours per fortnight).

BRINGING CHILDREN WITH YOU

College age children must attend college in Australia. Fees apply. You can choose to send your children to any Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students (CRICOS) registered college. You are advised to obtain as much information as possible pertaining to child care / day care / colleges which may be suitable for your child or children BEFORE YOU ENROL.

You can start your search at <http://education.qld.gov.au/> and you could compare these colleges with the non-government colleges for international students at <http://www.studyqueensland.qld.edu.au/>

You should arrive at least two weeks before your commencement date. This will give you time to settle down, buy uniforms and make sure your child is happy in their college.

ATTENDANCE

AAHB has the expectation that your attendance will be 100%. Please be mindful that you will be required to pay extra fees if you are unable to finish within the required period. The College monitors attendance in accordance with Australian Government standards and records absenteeism on your file due to any circumstances.

Department of Home Affairs considers a student's attendance unsatisfactory if it falls below 80% and we believe you cannot complete the course material in the time remaining. You will receive warning letters at 85% and 80%. If your attendance falls to 80% you will be required to take steps to rectify the situation. This may include participation in learning and / or counselling support, or to undertake other commitments required by the College. If your attendance does not improve after this intervention, the College must report you to DHA. This may lead to the cancellation of your Student Visa and you will need to leave Australia.

LOGGING AN EXTERNAL APPEAL OR COMPLAINT

If you wish to lodge an external appeal or complain about certain decisions, you can contact the Overseas Students Ombudsman. The Overseas Students Ombudsman offers a free and independent service for overseas students who have a complaint or want to lodge an external appeal about a decision made by their private education or training provider. See the Overseas Students Ombudsman website www.ombudsman.gov.au or phone 1300 362 072 for more information.

USE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

The information provided by you to AAHB may be made available to Commonwealth and State agencies and the Fund Manager of the ESO Assurance Fund, pursuant to obligations under the ESOS Act 2000 and the National Code; and the College is required under S19 of the ESOS Act 2000, to tell the Department of Home Affairs about certain changes to the student's enrolment and any breach by the student of a student visa condition relating to attendance or unsatisfactory academic performance.

We follow these principles in dealing with all our students. They help to guarantee you enjoy and benefit from your course.

PROVISION OF EDUCATION AND TRAINING SERVICES

- We maintain high professional standards of training and student management.
- We provide a learning environment that helps you to succeed in your studies and your career.
- Our Certificate and Diploma courses are registered with State and National government organisations
- Our trainers and our management team are sensitive to various cultural needs and expectations.

MARKETING OF AAHB

- We aim to market our College simply, accurately, and honestly.
- The information we provide is the most up to date and accurate information available to us regarding our courses, the College, our education and training system/s.

OUR FINANCIAL STANDARDS

We will protect the money you pay us until it is needed to pay for your course. The agreement between you and AAHB will be clearly documented in writing. The College grants you certain rights and these are balanced by your responsibilities to the College.

SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY

Students are reminded that only positive notes about the college and fellow students are displayed on social media sites when making reference to AAHB. Under no circumstances should offensive or derogatory comments be made about AAHB staff, students or clients on the internet. This may amount to cyber-bullying and could be deemed a disciplinary offence. Circumstances where online use of social media may result in disciplinary action include:

- Use of sites to bully, harass, discriminate or vilify work colleagues and customers;
- Use of the sites as a forum to publicise workplace disputes or grievances;
- Posting of defamatory content on such sites;
- Disclosure of confidential information or intellectual property on the sites; or
- Serious or repeated breaches of this policy.

Students who engage in breach of policies even outside college, may be liable to face disciplinary action. Failure to comply with the policy may result in disciplinary action being taken against students which may include suspension.

The College may take and use photos and/or videos of you and your work whilst you are studying at the College for administration, marketing and promotional purposes.

COLLEGE RULES

Professional conduct is the only level of conduct we expect from our students. Professionals do not arrive late; they treat clients, instructors and fellow students with courtesy and respect. They take the time to follow the rules of good grooming and proper hygiene and maintain an awareness of their surroundings at all times. The following rules reflect the level of conduct you will be expected to maintain throughout your career. The best way to begin that career is to act like the professional you want to be.

1. Normal college hours are Mon-Thu: 9.00am-5.00pm and Fridays 8.30am-5.00pm public holidays excluded. Theory classes run from 9.00am-5.00pm. Students should arrive 10 minutes early to be ready for class.
2. Lunch break is of 30 minutes duration and is to be taken at a time designated by the Instructor or Floor Manager.
3. Students should not leave the during college hours without the permission of the Floor Manager, Instructor or the College Principal.
4. Students must record only their own attendance on the college's computer every day on arrival and when leaving. Logging on or off for someone else is unacceptable.
5. Students must telephone College Reception between 8.30am and 9.00am if they are unable to attend classes or will be late.
6. All programs are continuous and no allowance can be made for absenteeism or lateness.
7. Applications for Holidays or Leave of Absence must be approved by the Principal before you purchase tickets or take leave.
8. Students should be well groomed and neatly attired at all times. Clean black and/or white clothing and comfortable closed-toed shoes should be worn. Soiled and stained clothing is not acceptable. (BSH/BSB T-shirts may be purchased at a very reasonable price).
9. Students must wear their name badge during college hours.
10. Students are responsible for their own Kit. Students must not borrow equipment, books or goods from others.
11. Each student must clean up his or her workstation including the floor area, after each service. Items must be swept up immediately after each service is completed.
12. We expect everyone to be courteous and happy in the salon. Under no circumstances will bad manners, bad temper or criticism be tolerated.
13. English must be used at all times with clients unless an Instructor or the Floor Manager has granted special permission.
14. Students must follow all work instructions given by the Floor Manager, Instructors or College Management.
15. Students must not refuse clients assigned to them by the Floor Manager or Instructor.
16. While a student is working with a client, no other student may visit him or her and students may not help each other without the permission of an Instructor.
17. An Instructor must check all work done by students and are happy to help with consultation, guidance, sales and advice.
18. Students must pay in advance for any college supplies for personal use.
19. Students on dispensary duty are responsible for checking out and documenting receipt of all supplies and equipment.
20. Students on the duty list will perform the duties listed at the prescribed times.
21. Students under 18 must provide a consent form signed by their parent or guardian for all off campus activities, holidays and absenteeism.
22. The student lunchrooms must be kept clean and tidy at all times.
23. Mobile phones and music players must be turned off during college hours.
24. No personal calls are to be made on the business telephone except in case of emergency.
25. Eating, drinking, smoking, using illicit drugs, consuming alcohol and chewing gum are not permitted in the college.
26. Copying, cheating, plagiarism or passing off other student's work as your own is unacceptable.
27. Theft of any college property or from other students will not be tolerated.

28. Sexual harassment violence and discrimination on the basis of age, race, gender or sexual preference are unacceptable.
29. Visitors are permitted only in the reception area.
30. All units must be completed and students must have reached competency in each unit within 20 days of the completion date of the course. If further training is required after that date extra fees will apply.
31. Workplace Health & Safety rules apply throughout all areas of the college.

ACADEMIES AUSTRALASIA HAIR & BEAUTY PTY LTD (AAHB)

WITHDRAWAL AND REFUND POLICY

The applicable Application/Deposit Fee for the course/s you have enrolled in is not refundable under any circumstances.

Any pre-paid tuition fees are held in trust until the commencement of the course.

This agreement and the availability of complaints and appeals processes does not remove the right of the student to take action under Australia's Consumer Protection laws.

Cancellation before course commencement

If a student withdraws/cancels from a course prior to the scheduled commencement date, tuition fees prepaid will be refunded (not including any application/deposit fee).

Cancellation/withdrawal after course commencement

If a student withdraws from a Qualification course after the scheduled commencement date, then the student must complete a Withdrawal Form and is obligated to pay the full course fees equivalent to their term of enrolment as per the applicable fee schedule for your enrolled course/s. All fees for this term must be paid even if you are asked to leave the college for non-compliance of school rules, or if your visa is cancelled.

If a student withdraws from a Short course all fees are due and payable even if you get a job or leave during the course.

If the school cancels a course, all fees will be refunded (incl. application/deposit fee) or transferred to a future course.

All withdrawals will be considered on a case by case basis. The scheduled commencement date, and the date of the Withdrawal Form becomes your enrolment period. Any calculations will be based on this enrolment period. At the schools discretion any final account will be calculated using the applicable fee schedule. Once a period of study has commenced, then fees are due for that whole period of study e.g. month, term.

Please visit www.brishair.com.au for full details of Refund Policy and Fee Schedule.

Requests for Refunds

Applications for refunds must be made on an "Application for Refund Form" & submitted as soon as practicable. If a student is under 18 years of age a guardian must co-sign the Application for Refund form. The school will consider extenuating circumstances and reserves the right to decide if it will pay a refund. Please contact our Director in writing.

Refunds are only paid in AUD$ and will take up to 21 working days to process from the date we receive the completed Application for Refund.

If a student's fees remain outstanding no certificates or statements will be issued.

Course Deferment

Students physically unable to continue their studies due to exceptional circumstances may complete a "Course Deferment Form" and an interview with the principal. A deferment is valid for up to 3 months from the date it is granted. Fees due during deferment must continue to be paid.

Special Clauses for International Students Only

Notification of withdrawal from a course of study must be made in writing and signed by the student. Refund for withdrawal will be calculated based on the date of the notice of withdrawal and will be as indicated in the following tables:

Before commencement of course:

More than 4 weeks before course commencement	70% refund of course fees paid
4 weeks or less before course commencement	50% refund of course fees paid

After commencement of course*:

No refund

* Please refer to above heading – Cancellation/withdrawal after course commencement

WITHDRAWAL AND REFUND POLICY cont'd

Visa Refusal – Where a visa application is refused before commencement of the course, the amount of refund is the lesser amount of: a) 5% of total course fee, or b) $500, deducted from the amount of fees received by the provider.

Where a visa application is refused after commencement of the course, the student will be refunded any unspent portion of the tuition fees paid in advance.

In both circumstances, the student must show proof of refusal and evidence of payment to the College.

However, the College is not required to provide a refund if the visa was refused for any of the following acts or omissions by the student that directly or indirectly caused the student to default:-

- Student's failure to start the course on the agreed starting day;
- The student's withdrawal from the course;
- The student's failure to pay an amount that he or she was liable to pay the College in order to undertake the course.

If your visa is cancelled because of poor attendance, poor academic progress or for some other reason, all tuition fees become due and payable immediately. No refund will be made. The School is obliged to inform the Department of Immigration of any student who cancels their enrolment or commencement date.

Compulsory Overseas Student Health Cover will be refunded if applicable. If your course has commenced or if we have already paid the health cover provider on your behalf, you will need to apply directly to them for a refund of OSHC fees.

The ESOS Act states that you may not withdraw until you have completed 6 months of your Principal Course which is the final course in the package used to get your student visa to come to Australia. The provisions of the ESOS Act 2000 and the ESOS Regulations 2007 cover provider default.

Any refund in relation to tuition fees and non-tuition fees in the case of student default and provider default are paid to the personal who pays the fees unless the student nominates a specific person who can receive a refund in respect of the overseas student identified in the written agreement.
