About Us

Since 1969, we've helped thousands of students build successful careers in the creative hair industry. While most of our students are domestic, we've also proudly welcomed international students from around the world, bringing diversity and energy to our classrooms and salons.

Our training combines theory, workshops, live demonstrations, and extensive hands-on practice in our student salon. We also create plenty of opportunities for industry exposure so students can grow their skills, confidence, portfolios, and professional networks.
